Flyers were sent to 165 past vendors of the indoor and outdoor flea markets. Art Hollis will call Jen Evans, the Girl Scout Troop leader, to see if they would be interested in selling food and refreshments during the event. If they are unable to, maybe a church group would be interested in the affair. The Road Department typically sprays the dividing lines on the grass between vendors. July newsletter

If room allows, Vita Course information is good subject matter for the upcoming newsletter.

OTHER BUSINESS

Joe Rosboril asked Jim O'Neill to look at the cracks on the tennis courts during his park check. It has been four years since they have been re-done.

Weekly park checks by Park & Recreation Board members: Munson Township Park; Someone painted pink lines on the parking lot. The lines were faded and hard to see. Maybe a baseball team painted them. There seems to be less bird droppings in the pavilions since the bird gel was applied. Scenic River Retreat; The Boy Scouts had a campout and the Fire Chief was notified of open burning at the park. Claudia Toth mentioned a problem with the E-Loo drainage and will
