ZONING INSPECTOR'S REPORT

A call was received regarding possible development off of Sherman Road for an animal preserve/business enterprise. The caller was informed that Munson Township is not interested in that type of business.

The BZA heard the case requesting installation of solar panels at a residence.

The BZA issued a continuance on the case requesting construction of a new electronic sign at a business.

OTHER BUSINESS

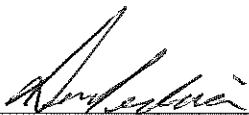

The board discussed proactive ideas for inclusion as amendments to the Zoning Resolution. Ideas included wind turbines and exotic animals.

The board discussed the Ohio Supreme court case on the state governing drilling and the ability of a local municipality to limit drilling.

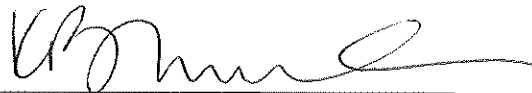

Board members need to be updated on the Township website.

There will be no meeting in April 2015. The next scheduled meeting is Monday, May 11, 2015.

Lenore Pikus made a motion and James Tekavec seconded to adjourn the meeting at 8:40pm.
